3. Consolidate Operating Results and Financial Position

1. Consolidated Operating Results

(1) Summery of operating results for the 1st half

[Overview]

The Japanese economy in the interim of fiscal 2006 stably continued a gradual recovery trend, mainly supported by private demand with both consumer spending and private capital investment steadily growing, although prices of resources such as oil kept hovering near record-high levels.

The business environment surrounding Nabtesco Group remained robust, helped by revitalized capital spending in the railway vehicles sector with both JR and private railway companies renewing their trains, continuous growth in the aircraft sector, and globally booming construction machinery with the Chinese market at its center.

In such environment, our group's mid-term business plan has entered the second year. For railway vehicles products, we have aggressively entered overseas markets with foremost emphasis on penetration into the Chinese market. In the oil hydraulic business, we have been committed to the creation of new products and new business, such as promoting sales of our new equipment for wind-turbines.

In order to improve product lines and productivity, we expanded the Tsu plant (Mie Prefecture), or our main plant for the precision equipment business. Moreover, we strived to expand overseas procurement and cut costs.

As a result, consolidated sales for the interim of fiscal 2006 increased by 8.6% from the same period of the previous year to  $\pm$ 77.9 billion, consolidated ordinary income increased by 21.5% to  $\pm$ 8.4 billion, and consolidated net income increased by 22.1% to  $\pm$ 4.7 billion.

Operating results by business segment are as follows:

<Precision equipment business>

In the precision equipment business, net sales decreased by 19.7% from the same period of the previous year to  $\pm$ 14.5 billion and operating income decreased by 53.0% from the same period of the previous year to  $\pm$ 1.6 billion.

Sales of precision reducer for industrial robots, one of our main products, declined since the automobile manufacturers have undergone capital spending adjustments of their robots.

Combined with additional depreciation expense due to new plant operation and increased development cost, profit of the main product declined.

However, precision reducer for machine tools remained robust, and semiconductor/LCD-related equipment also stayed at high levels.

<Transport equipment business>

In the transport equipment business, net sales increased by 22.1% from the same period of the previous year to  $\pm$ 21.8 billion and operating income increased 84.4% from the same period of the previous year to  $\pm$ 2.6 billion.

For railway vehicles products, sales of brake systems and door engines expanded, supported by brisk train renewals of conventional railway lines at both public and private railway companies as well as JR companies. Sales for the high-speed train project on existing track in China also gained momentum.

In the automobile-related business, sales of air brake system for commercial vehicles expanded thanks to the continuously high demand for products responding to emission control on trucks. In marine propulsion control systems, increased number of newly built ships on a global scale continued to drive sales.

<Aircraft and oil hydraulic equipment business>

In the aircraft and oil hydraulic equipment business, sales increased by 29.2% from the same period of the previous year to  $\pm$ 24.5 billion and operating income increased by 112.2% from the same period of the previous year to  $\pm$ 2.0 billion.

Sales of aircraft equipment rose in the wake of increased number of aircraft production such as the Boeing 777 in the civil aviation sector. For reference, development of racks and panels (high voltage electric power unit) for the Boeing 787, which had obtained large amount of orders, is running smoothly.

In oil hydraulic equipments, traveling units and valves remained brisk and posted an increased sales, backed by recovery in the Chinese market and growing demand of hydraulic shovels and mini excavators both at home and abroad.

<Industrial equipment business>

In the industrial equipment business, sales increased by 1.6% from the same period of the previous year to  $\pm$ 17.0 billion and operating income increased by 26.2% from the same period of the previous year to  $\pm$ 1.8 billion.

In automatic doors-related business, general-purpose doors achieved sales expansion by increasing market share, regardless of the difficult situation in construction investment. Meanwhile, orders/sales of platform screen doors have entered the post-boom period in this interim of fiscal 2006 after project completion in the previous year, resulting in a sales decline. On balance, sales of the overall automatic doors-related business edged up.

Sales of automatic packaging machines increased, supported by robust capital spending for the beverage/retort food manufacturers.

(2) Forecast for fiscal 2006

The Japanese economy is expected to expand at a healthy pace, with continuously high level of capital spending and robust consumer spending in the wake of the improving situation in employment and income, although there are some uncertainties such as crude oil price trend, the situation in the Middle East and risks of terrorism.

In terms of the business environment of our group, capital spending in automobile manufacturers who are the main users of industrial robots will continue adjustments for a while and recovery is expected to take more time.

Meanwhile, railway vehicles products are expected to remain brisk, supported by continuously strong renewal demand for trains from both public and private railway companies as well as JR companies. On top of this, the onset of mass production of new vehicles for the Shinkansen (domestic bullet train) and the continuous production for the speeding-up of conventional railway lines in China will also assure favorable trend. As for aircraft and oil hydraulic equipment business, production of civil aircraft is expected to grow, and construction machinery-related products are anticipated to benefit from strong demand in both home and abroad centering on hydraulic shovels.

In this situation, our group plans to actively keep developing markets both in Japan and abroad and creating new products, in order to achieve goals set in the mid-term business plan.

Moreover, with the aim of further strengthening profitability, we will make efforts on cost reduction through building the best production system and improving productivity.

In regard to consolidated business outlook for full fiscal 2006, we expect sales to be ¥159.0 billion, operating income at ¥16.0 billion, ordinary income at ¥16.5 billion, and net income at ¥9.3 billion, ROA at 6.3%, and ROE at 13.7%.

3. Risk Factors relating to Nabtesco Group and its Business

(1) Unexpected change in the financial position and operating results

Overseas sales in our group account for 23.9% in the interim of fiscal year 2006, and although the exchange risk of overseas sales in domestic business is hedged through forward markets, our group performance is affected by the exchange rate. Performances in overseas subsidiaries are also influenced by the exchange rate when their figures are translated into Japanese yen.

(2) Risks in product quality

Our group manufactures each product in accordance with the carefully planned quality control standards to detect any defects in products. However, there is no guarantee that all products are free from any defect, any recall, or are free from issues of product liability in the future. Product defects leading to a recall or products liability may cause a large amount of cost and negatively affect the Group's financial position and performances.

(3) Important lawsuits

Nabtesco group has a risk to be filed a lawsuit or to be subject to a legal proceeding in Japan and abroad. To correspond to a legal risk, the Company established the system in which the Legal Department and the Intellectual Property Department manage legal risks and report to the Board of Directors or the Board of Auditors if necessary. There was no lawsuit that might have substantially affected the Group's businesses in the interim of fiscal year 2006. If such a lawsuit is filed in the future, it may materially affect the Group's operating results and financial position.

(4) Intellectual properties

Our group utilizes intellectual property rights and licenses we hold or we acquired for operation of business activities. Upon expiration of those rights or licenses, competitors might enter the market, which may bring adverse effects on our performance.
