

February 10, 2022

Awarded the Highest Rating from CDP in Three Environmental Fields Inclusion in the Supplier Engagement Leaderboard 2021

Nabtesco Corporation (headquarters: Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, President & CEO: Katsuhiko Teramoto) hereby announces that it was awarded the highest rating and selected for inclusion in the Supplier Engagement Leaderboard for two years in a row. The company has also been included in the Climate Change A List and in the Water Security A List, and has thus been awarded the highest rating from CDP in three environmental fields for fiscal year 2021.

Nabtesco has been promoting environmental management in a broad manner to reduce its environmental impact. In particular, the company regards carbon-free measures as a top priority among its issues of management materiality. Accordingly, it has been conducting energy conservation initiatives, including introducing highly efficient equipment to each production bases and fostering the construction and rebuilding of its plant facilities to make them environmentally advanced. In addition, the company is promoting various energy creation activities such as solar power generation. Nabtesco also regards climate change risks in the supply chain as a priority issue to be addressed by the company, and will foster CO<sub>2</sub> emissions reduction initiatives through promoting dialogue and collaboration with its suppliers.

Going forward, Nabtesco will continue to conduct a range of initiatives to solve various environmental and social issues toward the creation of a sustainable society.

End

(Reference)

*CDP represents more than 590 institutional investors around the world, who manage assets totaling 110 trillion US dollars. This international NGO collects and evaluates information on environmental measures implemented by companies. In 2021, more than 13,000 companies, which collectively account for over 64% of global market capitalization, publicly disclosed their environment-related information through CDP.